

LORNA JENKINS

A true Islander, now living in Summerside, Lorna has been involved with Hospice PEI for many years. Lorna fell in love with Hospice and what it truly means to folks in her teen years seeing the extreme difference little gestures from someone can make in the life of a patient and their family.

Lorna has a deep passion for Hospice PEI and has a strong resolve to assist wherever needed, now serving her third term on the board, an active participant in many of the fundraisers, an avid volunteer with grief support, and hospice visitations in the hospital, community, nursing homes and community.
