

NANCY MACRAE

Born and raised on PEI, Nancy lived in Winnipeg and Toronto before returning to the Island to complete a Business Administration Diploma at Holland College, while working at the Bank of Nova Scotia and the Mack Theatre. She later moved to Halifax and studied at Saint Mary's University, attaining a Bachelor of Commerce with a major in accounting and a CPA CMA designation, followed by a Master of Business Administration.

Nancy has vast and varied experience at the senior level, including previous positions in public accounting with Grant Thornton LLP in Halifax, as Corporate Controller with the Irving Group in Saint John, and while living in Moncton, the senior financial position of Maritime Regional Controller for Montreal based Group Orleans.

Since relocating back to PEI, she has held the positions of Director of Finance with APM Group, Chief Financial Officer with the Confederation Centre of the Arts and Acting Manager of Finance with the City of Charlottetown. She is currently working part-time with Habitat for Humanity as their CFO.

